Arlington welcomes 4-H Fair this week-end

Agricultural exhibits, contests, entertainment at Recreation Park

The eyes of rural north Cook county turn to Arlington Heights this week-end where the 2nd annual 4-H fair and festival is being held at Recreation Park.

Henry L. Moehling, who is in charge of the exhibits says, "This year's event will draw twice as many exhibits as last year. We are having the cooperation of the agricultural departments of local schools and 4-H club membership is much greater than in 1947. Cash prizes totaling nearly $1,000 are being offered."

"The farmers are the ones who keep this country, on an even keel," says Farm Adviser Hughes, "and city folk as well as the rural will find many things to interest them at the 1948 show."

FRIDAY morning will be devoted to judging of agricultural and home economics projects, a tractor demonstration contest and start of the baseball tournament.

Entries in the livestock department include 75 cattle, almost as many hogs besides a large number of pets.

The evening program will be interesting and exciting.

Music will be by a barber shop quartette and hill-billy songs by Madam Human Shanks. Adding zest to the evening will be contests in hog and husband-calling and a number of women will attempt to nail a box together without hitting their thumbs. The 4-H club member who succeeds in catching the greased pig will take it home as his prize.

Movies will be shown each night after the close of the contests.

SATURDAY'S program includes the finals of the baseball tournament in the morning. A grand parade of 4-H champions, agricultural clubs, and the girls style show that made such a hit last year will take place in the afternoon.

The big feature in the evening will be the milking contests in which four girls will participate. The entertainment feature will be a magician, "The Great Faust."

Among the feature displays are the state mobile library unit, the farm shop of the Public Service Co. and display of agricultural implements.

There is no admission charge. Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce, thru the cooperation of its members, are underwriting the expenses of the fair. The farm bureau with the assistance of the 4-H clubs are making the fair the crowning event of the year.

Group plans for music programs in Arlington Hts.

Arlington Heights will have good music this winter. For some months now Arlington Heights Community Concerts Assn. has been discussing and definite plans have been made to bring good music to Arlington Heights. This is a non-profit association with no financial obligations to be incurred by anyone.

This winter throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico, 1100 Community Concert Associations will be functioning, bringing music to the local communities. No train ride downtown, no long drive; music just around the corner from where you live.

TOWNS immediately surrounding Arlington Heights will have the pleasure of these concerts this winter. Evanston will have 6,000 people enjoying this music.

Membership in the Arlington Heights association will be first come first served. The seating capacity of the high school gym is limited and it is fully expected that there will be disappointments among those who waited.

An organization dinner will be held September 20 and full details will be published in the Arlington Heights Herald. Any one desiring information please contact Gale Block, Jr., phone 1329-J or Milo Little, phone 1533 or Mrs. A. H. Franzen, phone 525.

Local judges give speeders heavy fines

Attempted theft of radio from wrecked car is 'mistake'

Judge Gould, Mt. Prospect, and Judge Behrens, Arlington Heights, can get real tough when the occasion warrants such action. An Arlington Heights resident drove 80 miles an hour on Elmhurst road, from Foundry road south through Mt. Prospect Friday night. He did not even slacken speed for the stop light on Northwest highway. He received a severe tongue lashing from Gould and paid a fine of $80 and costs.

The scene of the other speeding case was on Rand road, where a Chicago man drove 90 miles an hour in an effort to outdistance the state police. The police caught him at River road, Des Plaines. Judge Behrens placed the fine at $65 and costs.

A 1946 MERCURY was completely wrecked on the old Northwest Highway, near Gaare Oil Station, Sunday morning when Hugh Kenyon, of Barrington, lost control of the car, owned by his employer, Leslie Younghusband. In rounding the curve, the car rolled over five times. The driver sustained a broken wrist and other injuries, but was able to leave the Palatine hospital that evening.

POLICE OFFICERS were checking a Plymouth car parked on Greenwood, near the Larry Hildebrandt, who was on his way home, had a hunch to drive past his place of business, informed Officer Philippe that a man was working on the wrecked Mercury.

As Philippe investigated on foot, Larry remained near the parked Plymouth, when a stranger speaking to him, entered the driver's seat of the Plymouth and drove off at a high speed. The police officer gave chase and asked Arlington to establish road blocks. The driver evidently escaped on Kirchhoff road.

The police had taken the license number of the Plymouth and reported on the incident to the owner of the car, Commercial Credit Corporation.

The excuse given to Commercial Credit by their employee who was driving the Plymouth, is that he is a friend of Mr. Younghusband and had intended to purchase the radio. It was for the purpose of inspecting the condition of the radio that he had removed the bolts that held it in place. He does not explain the fact that he attempted the job at midnight and had parked his own car a block distant.

When John Gubbins, Elgin, the driver of the Plymouth, learned that the police were seeking him, he voluntarily surrendered asking that they check his story with Mr. Younghusband.

He stated he did not realize that the service station owner was responsible for the car and its equipment.

He was released without charges when Younghusband vouched for his identity.

Sider Foods liquidation sale set for Sept. 10

Sider Foods, which took over the property of Mayfair Foods and operated a similar business the past year, will liquidate its interests in Arlington Heights.

Michael Tauber company will auction the assets September 10. The large manufacturing building erected three years ago by Mayfair Foods is considered worth nearly a quarter of a million dollars. Inquiries for the property are now being made, Chicago brokers state.

One such firm is Leitner Equipment company, manufacturer of restaurant supplies and electrical equipment. Brokers interested in selling the property to this firm have asked a number of Arlington Heights officials and business men to meet representative of the company at Simson's restaurant Thursday noon.

Arlington draft board to cover six townships

Peace-time draft registration of young men in six area townships will start on Monday, August 30, at 8 a. m.

All men born in 1922, after August 30, 1922, must register on that day and younger men will register on the succeeding 19 days of the registration period.

The official draft registration schedule, as given to Paddock Publications Wednesday morning by Arthur C. Silber, chairman of board 101, is:

The Presidential proclamation of July 20, 1948, sets forth the following schedule of registration within the continental United States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands during the period, August 30 to September 18, 1948:

August 30, men born in 1922, after August 30, 1922.

August 31-September 1, men born in 1923.

September 2-3, men born in 1924.

The proclamation further provides for the continuing registration of men as they become 18 years of age. They must register within five days after they attain the 18th anniversary of the day of their birth.

Registration locations also were announced this Wednesday by the board. Arlington Heights village hall will be registration center for Wheeling, Elk Grove, Palatine and Schaumburg townships. Village Clerk Forrest F. Davis will be in charge of registrations here. Hours will be from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Davis has issued a call for volunteer women workers to assist as registration clerks during the 20-day period.

Barrington village hall is the registration location for Barrington and Hanover townships under the direction of Barrington village clerk.

Any person in the six townships can register at either of the two draft headquarters, if it is more convenient for him to do so, the board officials stated.

Arthur C. Silber, of Arlington Heights, is the new draft board chairman for board 101.

The other two board members are James Millay, of Arlington Heights, secretary; and Lester W. Coons, of Glenview. All three were elected at a meeting Monday night.

Board 101, over which the three men will have jurisdiction, comprises all of Barrington, Palatine, Wheeling, Hanover, Schaumburg and Elk Grove townships.

Coons served 4 years on the Wilmette-Glenview boards in World War II. Millay served two and one-half years on the Arlington Heights draft board, and Silber served five years on the Maywood board.

Draft board 102 includes Northfield, Maine and Niles townships, except the town of Skokie lying east of the Northwestern tracks.

Offer bus service for night school pupils at Heights

Announce 50 courses for school opening on October 11

If enough people want transportation to adult evening classes at Arlington Heights township high school, which begin Monday, October 11, the school will make arrangements for the ferry service.

According to Principal LeRoy J. Knoepfel, arrangements have almost been completed with Geisen Motor Coach company to pick up enrollees in Prospect Heights, Mt. Prospect and along the route to the high school. Round trip fare will be 25 cents.

Similar arrangements are being negotiated with Palatine Transportation System Inc. to begin a bus route at Palatine station and pick up passengers along Northwest highway to the high school building. Prices in this case will depend on the number of people wanting bus service. The rate will probably be 25 to 30 cents per round trip, or $2.50 to $3.00 for ten sessions.

The adult education program will be announced and circularized by mail by September 10. For further information call Arlington high school, 200.

This year for the first time registration may be by mail, providing necessary fees accompany the registration. No registration will be accepted without full payment, and none will be accepted on the regular nights of registration unless all fees are paid.

CLASSES OFFERED Monday night are beginning shorthand, beginning typing, bookkeeping and practical accounting, woodshop, metal shop, leathercraft, driver's training, driving technique, millinery, tailoring, music appreciation, little theatre, art photography, English, ballroom dancing, charm, mens gymnasium, and fly tying.

Arlington man loses house as well as 'stolen' fixtures

Ed Labant, who last week informed Arlington Heights police that a thief had stolen plumbing fixtures and a sink from a home he had just purchased, was a surprised home owner this week.

He discovered that not only did he not own the pilfered plumbing pipes, but he did not even own the house he thought he bought.

The truth of the matter is the house was sold for salvage purposes to an Evanston resident, who had legal ly begun to take it apart. Labant, who had made a bid on the property, thought he was the new owner. Hence he hurried call to police after his discovery of the robbery.

The hit and run driver caused the death Saturday of Herbert F. Goodwin, 19, 2134 Clifton ave., Chicago, at the intersection of route 83 and Higgins road. Herbert was riding a motorcycle with his brother, Harold, who sustained injuries that has kept him hospitalized. The inquest of Herbert was held Monday and the remains were taken to Chicago for burial.

George Reice, 56, who was employed on the farm of Ray Leseberg, Dundee road, was instantly killed Sunday night when he was hit while walking on Northwest highway near the Frosty Lane.

Mrs. Townstead Oswald, 22, of Wauconda, told Officer Ropnik of the Sheriff police that she did not see Reice until she felt the impact. Mrs. Oswald, near whose home the accident occurred, called the ambulance and county police.

An inquest was held Monday at the Tharp funeral home, the verdict being accidental death.

Reice, a native of Hungary, had no known relatives in this country. He had recently returned to Palatine after spending six years near Canton, Ohio. John Martri, his closest friend, reported that the deceased had $1600 in a savings account in Lake Zurich bank.

Harry Tharp with the approval of the public administrator, made interment of the remains in the Palatine southside cemetery Tuesday night.

Other hobby and antique collections at the show will include carved ivory, Japanese ceremonial gowns, wood-carved pieces, story-book dolls, and a South Sea island exhibit. Mrs. John Shanklin and members of her committee have found beer steins, shaving mugs and Toby mugs for collectors interested in these objects.

THE BEST of antiques are brought to the show from over the countryside, including furniture with famous backgrounds, jewelry of distinction, lamps, useful and decorative china-ware, trivets, milk glass, and others. Dealers will be represented from Freeport, Milwaukee, Cicero, Park Ridge, Maywood, Elgin, Barrington, and four from Chicago.

A black lacquered coffee table set up in the Chinese manner, a cobbler's bench, and modern and period coffee tables will form a part of the table-setting exhibit directed by Mrs. Joseph F. McRath. The larger tables will represent different occasions and holidays, including Christmas, the family picnic, baby shower, formal dinner, and "First Thanksgiving." A table of milk glass also will be exhibited.

All these settings may be seen at St. John church where after the three days of the exhibit. During the show a committee headed by Mrs. L. McAuliffe and Mrs. Erwin J. Rahn will serve luncheons and dinners.

One fifty-cent ticket will entitle the holder to attend the show all three days, September 14, 15 and 16.

Sunday school picnic
The branch Sunday school of St. Peter's Ev. Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, will hold a picnic Sunday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock at the Wilson school, Palatine road.

All children enrolled in the branch Sunday school are invited to attend and to bring their parents. An invitation is also extended to parents living in the Wilson school district, who have children of Sunday school age, to bring them to the picnic. They may enroll them in the Sunday school at that time if they so desire, and also have the opportunity of meeting the teaching staff.

Anyone who is interested in enrolling his child and is unable to attend the picnic, should contact K. L. Busse, Arlington Heights 1332-M, or C. Weinrich, Arlington Heights 325-J.

Additional area needed to meet expected population increase

Arlington Heights park district should acquire 38 more park site acres by 1950 and 75 additional areas by 1960 in order to meet the needs of the "young" community.

Arlington Heights, a "young" community, has more children between the ages of 5 and 14 than most Illinois towns and needs recreation facilities for its youth.

These and other recommendations were made public this week by Robert M. Beatty, Arlington Heights park board president, after the board received a professional survey of the park system by McFadden, Everly, Rose and Associates.

The firm was selected last spring by the park board and Arlington Heights grade school board of education to make recommendations for a comprehensive park and school program.

"They were recommended highly by surrounding villages and towns where they have made surveys," Beatty pointed out, "and their report to us provides for acquisition of land and improvement of existing property."

In summary form the report brings out 11 points. The park board already has investigated available property and has determined probable costs of land acquisition and improvements.

The survey shows:

1. Arlington Heights is having a "boom" growth. Population has increased one-third in the last three years. Planning must be projected until 1960.

2. Population by 1950 is estimated to be 8800 people and by 1960 11,800. These figures compare with 1920-2,250; 1930-5,000; and 1940-5,660. There are 2,136 families in the village of Arlington Heights.

3. The village has two barriers, namely: Northwest highway and State road which serve to divide the village into four sections. The Northwest section has 2,680 people; the Northeast 1,590; the Southwest 2,280; and the Southeast 910.

4. Arlington Heights is a "young" community, having more children between the ages of 5 and 14 than most communities in the state. This characteristic will prevail until 1970. Planning for education and recreation is essential to provide adequate facilities for this "young" community.

Recommendations are:

1. The village should have 75 acres of parks and school recreation areas for the present population and an estimated 118 acres by the year 1960. These recommendations are based on standards set up by the Chicago Regional Plan Association and many other authorities throughout the country. The present combined acreage of parks, grade schools and high school is 38 acres. This is a present deficiency of 37 acres. If no land is acquired until 1960, the community would have a deficiency of 80 acres.

2. It is recommended that park and recreation areas be obtained at once, as follows: Southwest park-7½ acres; Southeast park-7½ acres; seven lot lots-14 acres; and a parking lot at the field house-1½ acres. The proposed additions total 44½ acres and would give a grand total of 82½ acres of parks and school grounds.

3. Railroad parks along Northwest highway and Davis street to be redeveloped and beautified.

4. The park district should be "planning continuously" as changes in the community will determine what, when and where parks are needed.

5. Development of new park lands should be undertaken only when financial condition permits their maintenance.

6. Soft ball diamonds, at Recreation park, should be lighted for night games.

7. Northwest park should be developed and planted for future development as an attractive residential neighborhood park. Somewhat later, it can be used, in part, for play, tennis and games.

Further discussion of the park planning program will be at the park board's regular September meeting and at special meetings thereafter. Announcement will be made about September 15 as to the board's course of action.

Residents of the park district will be given a detailed report of the board's recommendations and approval of residents will be sought.

Line forms to left; AHTS expects to sign 825 by September 7

As of Wednesday afternoon, August 25, Arlington high school enrollment totaled 771, according to Principal LeRoy J. Knoepfel and the prospect is for a grand total of 825 students by the time school opens.

"If this 825 figure is reached," Knoepfel stated, "we will have 90 more students enrolled than last year."

The breakdown at present is 235 freshmen, 185 sophomores, 190 juniors and 161 seniors.

James C. Thon of Oak Park, a graduate of the University of Illinois college of physical education and health, has been employed by Arlington high school to fill the position left vacant by the resignation of George Gibson. Thon will teach health and safety and one class in physical education.

He will coach the freshman and sophomore football and baseball squads. Thon graduated from the high school at Oak Park, and holds a bachelor of science degree from the University of Illinois. His college training is one year at DePauw university and three years at the University of Illinois.

He was a varsity football letterman at DePauw in 1943, and has completed all courses in physical education and coaching at the University of Illinois. Thon spent 2½ years in the armed forces prior to his work at the University of Illinois. He has one year teaching experience at St. Vincents' home, Freeport, Ill., and will begin his duties at the Arlington high on Tuesday, August 30.

SEEING is BELIEVING

When you stop your car on our Brake Tester and actually see how your brakes behave, you know without anyone telling you, whether they need attention or not.

Our Brake Tester is like four horizontal scales—

each one telling just how much braking energy is applied to its wheel. When we adjust, reline or overhaul your brakes, they are tested and proven on this same Tester, so you know exactly how they will act on the road.

Car owners who have used our brake service are enthusiastic in saying they can feel the difference. It's a mighty sweet sensation, too, to know you can depend on your brakes—any time, under any conditions. Why not bring your brake work to us, and experience it!

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 22, was:

"MIND"
The Golden Text was:
"The Lord giveth wisdom; out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding" (Prov. 2: 6).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon were the following from the Bible:
"Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought: But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory . . . For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ" (1 Cor. 2: 6, 7, 16).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:
"The starting-point of divine Science is that God, Spirit, is All-in-all, and that there is no other might nor Mind, that God is Love, and therefore He is divine Principle . . . Divine metaphysics, as revealed to spiritual understanding, shows clearly that all is Mind, and that Mind is God, omnipotence, omnipresence, omniscience,—that is, all power, all presence, all Science. Hence all is in reality the manifestation of Mind" (p. 275).

Wedding Bells

Thirteen couples of the forty-five married by Rev. Edwin I. Stevens, pastor of the South church, Mt. Prospect, were present for the Wedding Bells service last Sunday morning. Greetings by mail were received from seven other couples who found it impossible to attend.

The atmosphere of the wedding occasion was created by the familiar wedding marches played on the organ by Miss Rose Marie Schutte, church organist, and by the vocal music of the morning. Miss Lucia Beth Stevens sang "O Promise Me," and the Youth choir presented the anthem arrangement of Malotte's, "The Lord's Prayer."

The high point of the service came when the pastor and Mrs. Stevens, in celebration of their 20th wedding anniversary, led the reunion couples in a renewing of the wedding vows.

COMPARE THE VALUE

Yes, compare the features—compare the prices—compare what you get for what you pay—and you, too, will come to the conclusion that Chevrolet is first in value. It alone gives Big-Car feature after Big-Car feature for Big-Car motoring results—and gives them at prices which are lower than those of any other car in the field!

COMPARE THE POPULARITY

You can identify the biggest value in any list of products by picking out the one product which enjoys greatest popularity, year after year; and, of course, in the field of motor cars, that one product is Chevrolet! More people are buying Chevrolets, and more people are driving Chevrolets than any other make of car, this year as for the total 17-year period, 1931 to date!

COMPARE THE FEATURES

Only Chevrolet combines "the Unitized Knee-Action Ride for gliding smoothness . . . the world's champion Valve-in-Head engine for performance and economy . . . Body by Fisher for tasteful beauty and luxury . . . and Fisher Unitized Construction plus Unitized Knee-Action plus Positive-Action Hydraulic Brakes for all-round safety protection!"

COMPARE THE PRICES

You'll agree with millions of other car buyers that prices—like quality—are a major consideration in these times; and just as Chevrolet's Big-Car quality is unique in its price range, so Chevrolet's prices are the lowest in its field. Moreover, Chevrolet also saves you substantial sums on gas, oil and upkeep—just to help your budget all the more!

Only Chevrolet gives BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST PRICES . . . that's why

Grade teachers 'briefed' for school days

Teachers and office staffs of Arlington Heights North and South schools will devote the week prior to opening of school on September 7 to discussions and group meetings in preparing for the year's work. R. E. Claiborn, superintendent, announced this week.

Subjects chosen for major emphasis this year, and which will be discussed during the pre-school meetings, are child development, use of community resources, democratic procedures and citizenship training, and school and community relations.

In addition, primary, middle and upper grade teachers will hear pertinent discussions by teachers of special subjects. Another feature will be a picnic attended by staff and members of the board of education on Tuesday, August 31, at Lake Avenue Woods.

Miss Dorothy Sott and Mrs. Argola Walk, building principals, and Miss Martha Sapp, guidance counselor, resumed duties on August 16 to prepare for the coming year.

Pupils who have not previously attended Arlington Heights grade schools must be registered by their parents at once, if they have not already done so. With the exception of kindergarten, freshments were served by Virginia Behrens and Marlene Krambeer.

The staff includes:

South school, grades 1 to 5
Argola Walk, principal; Miriam Goodin, kindergarten; Laura Grothe, first grade; Evelyn Dahm, first; Dorothy Martin, second; Nell Kennedy, third; Faye Thomas, third; Margaret Bentley, fourth; Norma Donlea, fifth; and Phyllis Rohde, fifth.

This Month in Your Service BULLETIN

CONSTITUTION DAY coming, we've been gathering biographical bits on the thirty-nine men who on September 17, 1787, at the Philadelphia Convention signed the Constitution of the United States. Two of the thirty-nine signers met death on the dueling ground. Two of them were arrested by our government but never brought to trial. One endorser invented the bi-focals—and for a very personal reason. Another introduced the lush hot-house and the ice-house to America. One gentleman lost a leg, another a sweetheart. One was a fisherman, another a golfer. One came to this country because of his health, another because of a hurricane. One delegate who was a lawyer bickered with his son-in-law. Another, who was a lawyer, after winning a legal battle, was buttonholed by the losing party and . . . but you'll read about it in this month's story which is full of biographical bits on the signers of Our Constitution.

Golf-Central Imp. group new organization

An improvement association to be known as the Golf-Central Improvement Association has been organized by the home owners within the boundaries of Central Road on the north, Busse road on the east, Golf road on the south and South State road on the west, just outside Arlington Heights.

At a recent meeting the officers were elected for the coming year. They are Arnold Scharringhausen, president; Gunnar Anderson, vice president; Howard Koepke, treasurer and William J. Scamhorn, secretary.

Several committees and appointments were made by the president and the newly formed organization is off to a fine start.

THE REASONS for creating this organization are as follows: To promulgate neighborliness. To welcome newcomers. To enlighten all old and new members and prospective home builders of existing building restrictions and requirements.

To furnish each member, and any others who wish, with a copy of Cook County Zoning Ordinance.

To safeguard any home owners health as far as possible, such as proper drainage, and the use of present drainage and calling attention to proper authorities of any deliberate misuse of present drainage that might cause a health hazard.

To combine their efforts against any possibility of a trailer camp being set up in the Golf-Central area.

To see that all building construction on this area is restricted to one family residential type home as per Cook County Ordinance, Section 4-5-6-7 Districts—

R-1 Residence - 5 acres.
R-2 Residence - 40,000 sq. ft.
R-3 Residence - 20,000 sq. ft.
R-4 Residence - 10,000 sq. ft.

THE PRESENT membership hopes this organization will operate to the mutual advantage of everyone in this area, and all within the above mentioned boundaries are invited to attend their regular meetings held the first Monday of each month at 8:00 p.m. at the Prairie View school on South State road near Algonquin road.

The next meeting will be held September 13. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. McCarty, Mrs. Turba and Mrs. Pfiffer.

Bird editor finds snowy egrets in northern area

There is probably no person in the northwest area who takes more interest in birds than J. O. Freeman, bird editor of Paddock Publications. He discovered this week that several specimens of snowy egrets had traveled as far north as Cook county and were to be found at Baker Lake, Barrington.

Their usual habitat is in Louisiana and the gulf coast. Chicago Academy of Science reports that the last time they were officially reported in this area was in 1854.

The snowy egret is about half the size of the American egret and has a black bill with yellow base in place of a full yellow bill.

The egret plumage was used for women's hats until the egret birds were protected by national law.

Freshman day September 7 starts AHTHS '48-'49 year

Freshman day at Arlington Heights township high school will be held Tuesday, September 7.

All freshmen will report to the high school assembly hall at 8:10 a. m. to receive schedule cards and to become acquainted with school regulations and activities.

Students attending the high school this year for the first time, but who are not freshmen, also are invited to attend the Freshman day rally. However, attendance for these students is not required.

The program activities will continue through the morning, with dismissal at noon for the rest of the day.

BUSSES will provide transportation to and from school starting on September 7, Freshman day. Instruction for all students will begin Wednesday, September 8.

Arlington Heights township high school activities fee includes admission to all athletic contests, all assemblies sponsored by the student senate (does not include class plays), textbook rental, school day accident insurance and a subscription to the Cardinal.

Cost of this fee, which all students should have the first day they come to school, is $7.25.

If a subscription to the yearbook is desired, activities fee is $11.00 and includes all above mentioned activities and books. The student senate adopted this schedule after a serious study of present costs in other schools and costs of admissions and yearbooks. In addition to activities fee, students will be given the opportunity of towel service at $1 per semester. Arrangements have been completed with a local laundry, and towels have been purchased so students will have this service with the beginning of the fall semester. Mothers should be delighted at the prospect of no longer having to send towels to school. Each student will be required to keep his or her locker locked at all times.

THE COSTS of this service are as follows: for those receiving lockers in the new addition with built in lockers, the lock fee will be twenty-five cents per year. For those having lockers assigned to them that require combination locks, locks may be purchased for one dollar and used as long as the student remains in high school.

The locks in this case will be the property of the student but may be sold back to the school provided the lock is in good shape at the end of the student's attendance at approximately one third the cost. The present policy is to buy used locks at thirty-five cents. In other words, a student may pay one dollar for a lock used for the four years and sell it back to the school at thirty-five cents.

Students may furnish their own combination locks if they care to purchase them elsewhere; however, locks are purchased and sold at cost by the school.

The deadline is near; 'Get it over with' tax collector's advice

This week is the last call for taxpayers to get in under the wire for payment of the second installment of 1947 real estate taxes.

Penalty date at the county building is September 1, after which a 1 per cent per month penalty will be added to all tax bills.

A 3 per cent penalty is already on the first installment and personal property bills, and another 1 per cent will be tacked on with each passing month.

Miss Boatright is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean D. Boatright of Morton Grove, and Mr. Staudenbaur is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Staudenbaur Sr. of Mt. Prospect.

New law requires care charges for cemetery lots

All cemetery authorities will collect charges for care on all lots sold, John Allen, secretary of Arlington Heights Cemetery association, announced this week.

The notice states further: The care fund will be invested and only the interest thereon may be used for upkeep of the grounds.

The new system is effective through an Illinois law passed January 1, 1948.

A report to the auditor of public accounts of funds collected to January 1, 1948, and disposition thereof and a yearly report thereafter are required. A license for further acceptance of care funds also is required. Trustees of Arlington Heights Cemetery association have filed such a report with the auditor of public accounts, and the report has been accepted. A license, therefore, was issued authorizing acceptance of funds for care.

Since there are more than 7000 cemeteries effected by this law and the Arlington license number shows No. 186, the trustees feel they have shown due diligence of lot-holders' money.

Because of the effect of the new law, the trustees are considering abolishment of the system of yearly assessments and of requiring that, no further burials be made until back assessments and care charge has been paid in full.

Three Great Books courses at Glenview

Glenview will have three Great Books Discussion Groups commencing in September, the Rev. Robert Edgar reported yesterday. This is unusual for a village of this size. Two of the groups are sponsored by the Community church and the new group will be sponsored by the Public Library under the direction of Mrs. Florence Lowenbach, librarian. Continued inquiries from villagers have indicated the need for still another group. With two groups meeting at the Community church, Mrs. Florence Lowenbach, who has been a member of the discussion group since its formation, agreed to sponsor the new section at the Library.

Sugar researchers say subject of tooth decay needs more study

The teeth of human beings will not be protected against decay by addition of rare compounds to sugar at the refinery, according to tests by Dr. James H. Shaw of the Harvard School of Dental Medicine.

Dr. Shaw has conducted a study of adding glyceric aldehyde to the rations of special colonies of rats, at the suggestion of the Foundation. Last fall hopes for a solution to the age-old problem of tooth decay had been raised by newspaper stories reporting encouraging results from test-tube observations at Northwestern university, so the Harvard project was initiated to prove or disprove the point.

But dietary studies did not support the test-tube findings, says Dr. Shaw. Nor have scores of other decay inhibitors tried over the last decade proved out, say sugar research groups. What is becoming more and more evident, they say, is that much larger sums of money and more research be directed to solution of the whole complex problem of dental care.

Social security act thirteen years old

The thirteenth anniversary of the signing of the Social Security Act occurred on Saturday, August 14, it was pointed out by Miss Ellen McGuire, manager of the local Social Security Administration field office in Evanston. This law was designed, among other things, to provide workers and their families the protection of social insurance and, since that day in 1935, when the law was signed by the President, it has become a vital part of the lives of millions of Americans by giving workers a way of building protection for themselves and their families.

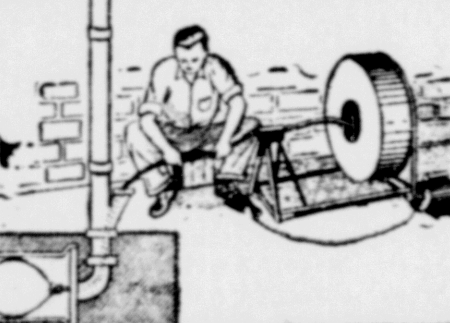

Since 1937, when the system of old-age and survivors insurance went into effect, Miss McGuire stated, more than two billion dollars have been paid to retired workers and their families and to the survivors of workers who have died. Miss McGuire says further, the payments are now being made to more than two million persons at the rate of more than forty-two million dollars a month. Offices like the one at Evanston are located in 475 other towns and cities throughout the country.

Through these offices approximately ninety-one million account numbers have been assigned. These social security account numbers have been assigned as part of the job of keeping workers' wages recorded accurately. The Evanston office has been operating since 1940 for the benefit of residents of Northern Cook County outside of Chicago. In addition to the services available at 1603 Orrington avenue, Evanston, Illinois, information and advice may be obtained from a representative of the Evanston office on the following schedule: U. S. Post Office Building, Des Plaines, every Tuesday, 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The public is invited to call at the local office or at the above station to discuss any questions about old-age and survivors insurance. The telephone number of the Evanston office is University 7237.

ADULT EDUCATION

Adult education in the United States has grown by leaps and bounds in the last 100 years. The World Book Encyclopedia reports that one out of every four adults is engaged in some form of adult education. This gives the U. S. an adult student body of more than 20 million.

Cook county fair to open Friday at Soldier Field

It's Fair time in Chicago for 11 days beginning Friday noon when the Cook County Fair opens Soldier Field's gates with the first county exposition ever held in the city! Years ago the fair was held at Palatine.

Conceived as a traditional county fair, scaled to the stature of the Midwest's biggest county, the vast exposition will fill the lake front arena and adjacent areas with prize livestock, garden and home produce, home cooking and canning exhibits, flowers, needlework, youth activities, poultry, student art work, scientific, commercial, industrial and hundreds of other displays. In addition, a well-rounded entertainment program will be presented throughout the Fair.

More than $39,000 in cash premiums will be awarded in the competitive events, ranging from the best tatted handkerchief to a prize bull. Ribbons and trophies will augment the money awards.

FIVE neighboring counties have joined Cook County in entering official agricultural displays in the $6,500 community competition. Farm advisors from McHenry, Lake, Will, Kane and DuPage counties have arranged for colorful displays from their areas.

One of Soldier Field's vast exhibition halls will be converted to a mass of blooming beauty for a flower show with major garden clubs and individual growers competing for $6,000 in cash awards.

A parade through Chicago's loop at 10 o'clock Friday morning will signal opening day for the Fair.

Sues for completion

Michael J. Rudnik has sued the village of Skokie and its officials in Superior court, asking for an injunction to prevent them from stopping construction of a house he is having built there and which is well underway. He states that he secured the usual building permit and had showed his plans and a contractor had the work going when the police came and ordered work stopped. He asks that he be allowed to complete the house at 5217 Carroll avenue.

Jewel sales top same period in '47

Earnings for the first 23 weeks of 1948 were $3.36 per share of common stock compared to $2.46 per share during the same weeks of 1947. Retail sales were $79,504,588, an increase of $13,899,190 or 21% over a year ago. More than half of this gain came from increased tonnage of merchandise purchased by customers. Total dollars of expense, particularly wages and salaries, were higher than last year. However, a smaller portion of each sales dollar was required for expense of operations.

Going away for the holiday?

To make sure yours will be a carefree holiday, let your Conoco Mileage Merchant check and service your car. Above all, be sure he drains out contaminated old oil and refills with fresh, clean Conoco Nth Motor Oil.

That's the surest way we know to leave worry behind. Because the modern Nth Oil (Patented) enters your engine an extra, added film of lubricant fastens itself so closely to metal that cylinder walls are actually OIL-PLATED! Because OIL-PLATING stays up... won't all drain down, even overnight, you're extra-protected against destructive "dry" friction, against metal-eating combustion acids, against power-choking sludge and carbon due to wear.

For an extra-happy holiday...

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxins. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure.
When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness,
stinging up nights, swelling, puffiness
under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.
The recognized and proper treatment
is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys
get rid of excess poisonous body waste.
Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endured the country over. In fact, Doan's Pills are sold at all drug stores.

Sheridan Whiteside who came to dinner and stayed on as an unwilling guest of Mr. and Mrs.
Stanley of Mesalia, Ohio, has been one of Kaufman and Hart's greatest successes.

At Lake Zurich "the man"
will be portrayed by Gerald E.
McGonagill, with Bobbie Collette
in the role of his faithful secretary Maggie. Other leading roles will be handled by William J. Harahan, Constance Charles, Robert Casper, and Richard Bull. Nearly the entire company will be seen in this production which will be under the direction of Edward F. Nicholls. The setting will be designed

by Lee Travis. "The Man Who Came to Dinner" will play for five consecutive nights, September 1 through 5.

Next week the Playhouse will once more be darkened for the fall and winter months. The entire company wishes to thank the many theatre goers who have helped to make this season such a tremendous success.
And they hope to see them back again next summer when the Lake Zurich Playhouse begins its 5th season of bringing to the Chicago area the finest in theatrical entertainment.

3rd round of wage increases will up prices

"The third round" of wage increases is about completed. Now we may ask, "What will be its effects?"

Wage increases have different results at different times, depending upon the other prevailing economic conditions. The third round of wage increases comes at a time when everyone who wants to work has a job. It comes at a time when many employers would like to hire even more people. It comes at a time when consumers as a group already have more income than
there are things to buy.

Under these conditions the wage increases probably will not cause any immediate general unemployment. The greater amount of money in weekly pay envelopes will give the workers more money to spend for food, clothing and other things.

BIGGER WAGES—Higher
prices. More money to spend will not make more pork chops or more steak. It will not make any more milk or butter. Spending more for these and other foods will only make prices go higher. Labor groups, not farmers, will be responsible for these price increases.

Increased consumer incomes
will also increase the demand for automobiles, housing, household appliances, clothing and other manufactured products. In general it will not be possible to increase the production of these things, because larger supplies
of raw materials, manufacturing facilities and labor are not available. Larger incomes will, however permit many consumers to spend more money each week
and thus promote and sustain
price increases.

On the other hand, higher wages
mean higher costs of production for industry. Costs of mining coal, iron ore and other mineral products will increase. Transportation costs will be greater. Manufacturing and retailing expenses will be higher.
Businessmen must consider all of these increases in costs when setting prices on their products.

HAVE DOUBLE effect. Thus we see that higher wages in industry have a double effect in raising prices of manufactured goods. First, bigger wages tend to pull prices higher by increasing consumer demand or buying power. Second, they tend to push prices up by raising costs of production and distribution.

Undoubtedly many of the more intelligent labor leaders understand this. However, each union is in a perpetual race with all of the others to see which one can get its wages pushed up most. The group that can get the most rapid wage increases gains a temporary advantage over other wage earners. Meanwhile, the whole procedure
greatly aggravates the problem
of controlling inflation.

CUD-CHEWERS

All the ruminants or cudchewers, namely, cattle, sheep,
goats, deer, antelope and camels,
invariably get up with their hind legs first, while other large quad-rupeds use the opposite procedure with forelegs first.

Journal of a Bird Watcher

by F. J. FREEMAN

September (1947)—This is the time of the year when birds
quite often are not what they are pictured to be. What with full grown young birds still in juvenile plumage, adults changing to winter colors, and others just going through a molt, the picture is pretty confusing. And the ordinary popular type of bird guide does not do anything to remedy the situation. For instance, such books, if they show
the female, relegate her to a secondary position behind the male and peeping coyly out from under his chin. Seeing only half of what appears to be an uninteresting bird compared to the brilliantly colored male,
one generally ignores the female. Then when you come face to face with an unescorted female in the woods or fields, you can only say: "Your face looks familiar but I don't remember your name." If this does not frighten her away, you may then have a chance to scramble through your bird book and identify her. Of course it might turn out to be a
he instead of a she in a different suit of clothes or one of the offspring of the year still in the bobby soxer stage of dress.

Sept. 14—We had the head of a sunflower lying on our back porch drying out, and a young cardinal molting from his juvenile to his adult colors came there to feed. He was splashed all over red and gray like a king's jester. On the 20th of the month I saw a flock of about a thousand grackles in the Heights.
These are the familiar blackbirds with the fancy long tails
that strip the peas from our gardens. Only the flock I saw this day was in the process of molting their tail feathers. They had lost the two center feathers which makes the tail show a pointed diamond shape in flight,
and instead their tails were short, forked and rounded. Most unelegant for them.

One morning my wife was out in the yard and came running in saying that there were two strange looking birds feeding on our pole bean blossoms. There was much scurrying around for glasses and bird books and speculations as to what they might be. Fortunately in contrast to us they were calm and collected and we finally identified them

as a female rose-breasted gros-beak and full grown young. It seems somehow, in the sport of identifying birds, that this sort of thing should count.

I was up at the Barrington slough the other day and sat in my car on Hillside avenue watching the bird life when I realized that killdeer had been flying in from the northeast one or two at a time. One would fly in and settle down and then by
and by one or two more would show up. We ordinarily think of birds migrating in flocks, but the killdeer flocks are such scattered things that they must extend for miles. Toward the end of the month we could hear them
migrating over Itasca at any hour of the day or night for several days. No sooner had the voice of one died away than we heard another until it seemed as though the whole span of migration from Canada to the Gulf must be linked together by their high wild crying.

The Younger Generation

Charles and David Weinrich (at left) are the brother combination in this week's parade of local youngsters.

The boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Weinrich, 125 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights. Charles is 6½, has brown hair and hazel eyes, and will enter

Quick work saves life of boy in car afire after crash

Quick action by three employees of Park Ridge Cleaners was responsible for saving the life of a Des Plaines youth Tuesday of last week, when he "blacked out" while driving southeast on Busse highway.

Norman Thompson, a presser for the cleaning firm at 283 Busse highway, saw the car leave the road and burst into flame as it crashed into a tree. He yelled to William and Joseph First for assistance, and the three men dashed to the scene of the accident.

While Thompson and Joseph First extracted Donald Day, 18, of 527 Thacker avenue, from the wreckage, the third member of the rescue party put out the blaze with a fire extinguisher he had picked up in the plant.

Des Plaines auto dealer injured in car

Monday morning of last week at about three o'clock, a head-on collision between a 1948 DeSoto convertible and a 1942 Buick occurred on Mannheim road near Belmont avenue, Franklin Park, that resulted in the serious injury of Earl MacNevin, Des Plaines automobile dealer.

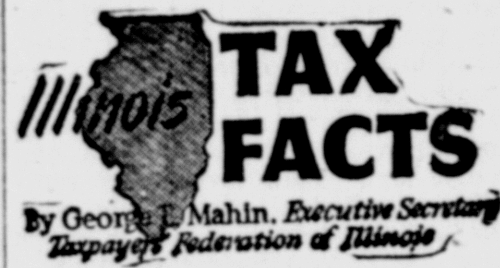

Driving south on Mannheim road, MacNevin collided head-on with a car driven north by Arthur Weinrich, Fox Lake, Illinois. The Weinrich car burst into flames and firemen from Franklin Park extinguished the blaze under the hood of the car, then spent 30 minutes prying loose the doors to remove the five passengers from this car.

second grade at St. Peter Lutheran school this fall. David, 4½, is a blonde and has brown eyes, and will start kindergarten classes at the same school.

The next two youngsters are David and Kathie Curtis, children of Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Curtis Jr., of 532 S. Highland, Arlington Heights. David has brown hair and gray eyes and celebrated his ninth birthday this week on August 24. This fall he will be in the fourth grade at South school.

His sister, Kathie, who was three years old on June 25, has brown hair and brown eyes.

Through the courtesy of the taxpayers of the country who pay the printing bill, with an assist from Senator C. Wayland Brooks who made the arrangements, the Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois regularly receives the Congressional Record. Generally speaking this is pretty dull reading, but every now and then there's something that makes the printed report of Congress to the nation worth the cost to the taxpayers.

"Why are you paying high prices?" was the subject of remarks by Representative Robert B. Chipfield of Illinois, printed in the appendix of the Congressional Record of August 17. Portions of his remarks follow:

"England never took off her controls after the war. What is the result? Yes, prices are lower, but why? In the controlled market, meat is only 40c a pound, but the British Government pays a subsidy of 16c a pound, bacon is 48c a pound, but there is a subsidy of 18c a pound. Butter is 30c a pound, but the subsidy is about 20c a pound. Eggs are 60c a dozen, but there is a subsidy of 20c.

"These subsidies, which would ordinarily be paid out of taxes by the British people, amount to almost $1½ billion, or about one-seventh of her national budget. Gifts from the United States of about $1 billion annually help pay for these subsidies. In other words, our taxpayers carry the load so that England may have lower prices.

"But have these controlled lower prices solved England's problem? There each person can only buy 20 cents' worth of meat a week, 2 ounces of bacon a week, 3 ounces of butter, and only one egg a week. To get around such a scanty diet there are huge black markets selling these very same items at sky-high prices."

Why are you paying high prices? High taxes contribute to high prices. Taxes are a part of the cost of production, just as wages, materials and other items. The price of a loaf of bread includes taxes paid by the farmer, the miller, the railroad that transports the wheat, the baker, and everybody else who has a part in producing the loaf of bread.

And, to quote again from Representative Chipfield: "The policy of our government going into our markets and buying billions of dollars of steel, fertilizer, farm machinery, and other items in short supply has probably been the greatest single factor in keeping the inflationary spiral revolving."

Is it true that you and I, who pay a dollar or more a pound for meat, are being taxed so that the government in England can provide meat to the British people at 40c a pound?

Is it true that we are being taxed so that the government in England can hold down the price of butter to 30c a pound, bacon to 48c a pound, eggs to 60c a dozen?

Aren't the American people entitled to an answer to the question, why should we pay high taxes to enable our government to compete with us in the market for articles in short supply, resulting in high prices for us here, in order to enable the government of England to hold down prices for the people there?

Son in car passes father in truck, hits pole and is killed

LeRoy Beinlich of Lehigh avenue, Glenview, was killed instantly when he lost control of the car he was driving and plunged into the ditch, striking a telephone pole. The accident occurred on Lehigh two blocks south of West Lake avenue.

LeRoy had just passed a truck being driven by his father, Roy Beinlich, when his car plunged off the road. In the car riding with him was his brother-in-law, F. Schubert, who suffered a broken arm.

Riding in the truck with his father was his brother, Raymond. LeRoy Beinlich's skull was fractured. He was 24 years old. He had been living with his wife's family on Lake avenue. His father's home is on Techny road.

Child is injured in fall from score board

Ellen June Muckle, 3, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. James B. Muckle, 312 Jackson st., Libertyville, suffered a slight concussion while playing with some neighbor children.

According to Mrs. Muckle, who did not see the incident, but who was notified by a neighbor who was watching the children at play, two older girls led the Muckle child to the top of the football scoreboard on the high school football field, and then pushed her. She fell to the ground. She was taken to her home where she remained unconscious for some time.

HIGH COST!

It's not always the fuel -
it may be your FURNACE

Yes, we know heating fuels are high in cost, but did you know that the heating sections of your furnace or boiler will fill up with FLYASH, SOOT or SCALE? This cuts down the heat output of your heating plant and TO OBTAIN the desired room temperature you burn more of that HIGH PRICED fuel. COAL fired, OIL fired or GAS fired they all get dirty and cause higher FUEL bills. So why not plan now to cut your heating cost next season, by having us POWER VACUUM clean your heating plant NOW and remove all that flyash, soot or scale.

We also do a thorough job of cleaning cold and warm air ducts.

Our new power vacuum cleaner that makes it possible for us to clean all COAL, OIL and GAS fired heating plants (including all AIR DUCTS) in one operation.

Questions on G. I. bill

Question: Can a Navy man who will soon be discharged re-enlist without his wife's consent?

Answer: Yes.

Question: I am interested in having my honorable discharge recorded. How do I do this and is there a charge?

Answer: Under Illinois law, each County Recorder will make record of any honorable discharge.

charge and will furnish one certified copy of same to the applying veteran without cost — no time limit.

Question: Is it correct that all 10 point persons are permitted to re-open Federal Civil Service examinations previously held—once every quarter?

Answer: Yes.

Question: My son has been totally disabled for the past five months. Must he pay his National Service Life Insurance premiums or is a waiver on these premiums granted automatically?

Answer: Yes, he must continue to pay his National Service Life Insurance premiums until he receives notice from the Veterans Administration to discontinue these payments. There is no automatic waiver. When the veteran has been totally disabled for six months, he should submit a written application for waiver of premiums to the Veterans Administration plus whatever medical evidence he may have of his disability condition.

Idaho "Ghost Town"

Roosevelt, now an Idaho "ghost town", was once calculated to be so rich in gold ore that a bill was introduced into the legislature to set it aside as a gold reserve to pay off the public debt.

Make plans for Legion convention

A varied and full program of entertainment has been arranged to attend the 30th annual state for the record throughs expected convention here Sept. 10-13 of the American Legion, Louis Rosset, special events chairman, said today (Saturday).

Highlighting the list will be "American Legion Day" Sunday, Sept. 12 at the Chicago Railroad Fair. Douglass D. Getchell, retiring state commander, will make an official visit to the exposition at 8:30 p. m. that day and will speak briefly. Accompanying him will be Legion musical units.

Five thousand delegates and alternates will attend business sessions at Chicago Arena and Frank W. Bloom, convention chairman, is making arrangements to handle 100,000 Legion visitors here daily.

Extend railroad fair through September

Extension through the month of September of the Railroad Fair, spectacular exposition that has been drawing multitudes daily to Chicago's Lake front, was officially announced today by Maj. Lenox R. Lohr, its president.

Opened July 20 and originally scheduled to close September 6, the Railroad Fair has exceeded all expectation with a total paid attendance to date of close to 1,600,000 persons, and a daily average of more than 44,600. During the same period the pagant, "Wheels a-Rolling," focal feature of the Fair, has drawn a total audience of over 600,000 paid admissions. Heralded by many as the most colorful dramatic extravaganza placed before the public in years, "Wheels a-Rolling" has been playing to capacity audiences four times daily seven days a week.

Motor registrations still going up

Motor vehicle registrations in Illinois have climbed to the unprecedented total of 2,119,228 vehicles, Secretary of State Edward J. Barrett reported today. This is 39,340 vehicles more than the previous 1941 peak year registration of 2,099,753, he said.

Included in the registrations for the first seven months of this year are 150,380 new passenger cars and 34,090 new trucks. Compared with the 8,768 junking certificates issued during the same period, Secretary Barrett said that 16 new cars are coming into use for every old car going out of service.

Total registrations in the various classifications of motor vehicles reported by Secretary Barrett follow: Passenger cars, 1,785,802; trucks, 293,139; trailers and semi-trailers, 48,661; motorcycles, 23,721. The number of automobile dealers authorized to operate totals 7,206, a new high in that field.

Autumn color effects may be planned now

Summer may still be here, but many property owners are giving deep thought now on how to use Jack Frost's color artistry to best advantage. When the planting season begins next month (September), many shade trees will be placed on grounds not alone for their size, shape, summer foliage, longevity and cleanliness, but for their color effects when the ozone gets nippy, according to M. W. Staples, field supervisor of the Davey Tree Expert Co.

Of course, you may not enjoy the spectacular color riot this fall, but chances are good that you will next year if you select for planting the best arboreal showcases for Jack Frost's brush.

THE OAK family is notable in this category. It provides many members that neatly daub the local scenery. The willow oak turns a pale, tawny or golden yellow. The pin oak acquires a bright to deep scarlet and often has green and scarlet leaves on the same branch. The shingle oak takes on rich reddish brown to russet-red hues, while scarlet oaks turn to brilliant scarlet, red and crimson tints. The eastern red oak varies from maroon to rich brownish red.

The black tupelo is almost sure to dominate any landscape with its glowing scarlet, orange and red, and even purple tints. The American sweetgum, one of the best autumn trees, runs the gamut from yellow through gorgeous red and crimson to darkest purple. The gingko vibrates with a clear or golden yellow. Most of the maples provide fine autumn color. The sugar maple varies from gloriously brilliant crimson to shades of yellow and gold. The red maple with its scarlets and crimsons is one of the reddest of all native trees.

Evergreens lend eye-appealing background support and effective contrast for the riot of fall coloring.

State VFW convention opens at St. Louis

More than 700 delegates from Illinois posts of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will attend the 49th national encampment of the overseas veterans organization which opens in St. Louis on Sunday, August 29.

Heading the Illinois delegation will be State Commander Henry L. Warner of Maywood. Other Illinois VFW officers who will attend the national confab include Senior Vice Commander James R. Schmitz of Ottawa; Junior Vice Commander Hugh Keable of Chicago; Quartermaster William Bollig of Joliet, and Adjutant Frank E. Polley of Chicago.

At the convention, the Illinois department of the VFW will be awarded a special plaque for having the second largest membership in the first division of the organization for 1947-48. At present the VFW represents about 75,000 overseas veterans in Illinois. Plans are now underway to increase this membership to at least 100,000.

Problems affecting veterans on a national scale will be the main order of business at the St. Louis encampment. These include housing, pensions, hospital facilities, and similar subjects. State Commander Warner said that he also plans to ask the encampment to open membership in the VFW to accredited war correspondents who were awarded overseas theater service medals or combat decorations.

Blonde Typewriters head stage revue at Majestic theater

For the week of August 31 the Majestic theater of Chicago will offer a fine vaudeville bill.

Headliner will be the Blonde Typewriters, who will present a diverting little musical playlet called "Fun in an Office."

It is one of the productions of Gus Edwards. A half dozen of young ladies, all blondes, will take part in this act and they have been supplied with a number of Mr. Edwards' latest songs, written especially for them.

Frank Byron and Louise Langdon, the funniest couple on the stage, will be seen in their laughing act, "The Dude Detective," an act which has probably amused more people than any other in vaudeville.

The Four Brothers, Brown and Keeley, have a singing and dancing turn which will live up to the bill as they are noted for their fun-making efforts. Mabel Adams, the pretty violin virtuoso, known as the gypsy violinist, will be one of the principal musical incidents of the program.

He says it is a better job and much cheaper than the work done by machines.

of the STREET

BY T. C. HART

WHERE FROM HERE?

Several township collectors, working in the county treasurer's office the other day, started to talk shop, and compared notes on collections and tax matters in general.

They all agreed collections were slow and the percentage of collections was falling considerably below last year.

One collector told how the mayor of his town told the village board, "We'll have to kind of coast along and go easy until we get the second installment of tax money."

And the collector told him, "Don't count too strong on that second installment. You know what happened last year when nearly all second installments were held up to protect protested taxes."

With 98,000 cases before the board of appeals on assessment complaints, and countless others paying under protest, the tax picture is not bright for taxing bodies.

One collector remarked, "These boards pass huge budgets and levy big taxes, then the people raise Cain with us when they get their tax bills. What I'm wondering is where do we go from here?"

And that's what lots of taxing bodies will wonder before their fiscal years are over.

98,000 PROTESTS

Cook county board of tax appeals hopes to hear 98,000 objections to valuations by January, at the present rate of 1,500 to 1,700 per day.

Rate reduced taxes due to a cut in valuation, add that to the rate of protests, and what does it do to a school or other taxing unit budget? It simply taxes it into a cocked hat; schools and other taxing units get less money and the financial system is knocked out of whack. People want better schools, better services, but they're the ones who protest taxes and put taxing bodies in the hole.

ALL OVER

The lush days of easy bond issues are all over.

Wheeling village showed that the other day when it turned down a $50,000 bond issue for a new village hall by a 7 to 1 vote. Yes, the public is getting wise. They won't vote for anything, and then protest the taxes, hoping someone else will pay the freight. Every tax bill reduction means next year's rate will be higher. Just watch those tax bills. Don't say we didn't tell you they'll be higher next year.

THE MAJORS

Major league bowlers in Palatine are getting all steamed up for the opening of the new alleys. The league has expanded this year into ten teams. They include LaLonde realtors, Hacker-Coleman, Drive-In cleaners, Pepper Construction company, Circle Aire heat, Palatine drug, Haseman truckers, Steinbrink insurance, Tharp undertakers and Hodgson ready toters. The fifty boys are looking for a big season.

REAL GET TOGETHER

There's nothing like a picnic to get people to let loose of dignity and have a good time.

Two Palatine communities have proven this recently. Palatino Parkers and South Plum Groves got together in neighborhood picnics and had a grand time, generating a better spirit of friendliness and cooperation.

Maybe such a picnic would be good for a whole town. We used to have them way back when; even had them with Palatine and Barrington getting together. Maybe some year we'll "close up the town for half a day and everybody go out and have fun."

FISH STORIES

Gray Sanborn and the Mrs. got back from a vacation recently from the Northland and had plenty of fish stories to tell, not of their own exploits, but of the luck of others.

Gray said his nice new tackle and lures didn't attract the fish, but fellows with old battered lures hauled in 19 and 28 pound muskies. Mrs. Sanborn told about a fisherman who caught his first muskie and wanted something to hit it with. Nuff of the fishermen had a guff hook, but offered plenty of advice on how to land the catch.

He finally hauled the fish in, but probably all the advice from the side lines didn't help a great deal.

A REAL SPECTACLE

A real softball spectacle was staged last week at Barrington when Barrington all-stars played the Hotentots, a colored softball outfit. What the Harlem Globetrotters are to basketball, the Hotentots are to softball.

The colored boys put on a real show. After going out in the lead, the boys put on one comedy act after another that kept the crowd in gales of laughter. With the speed ball pitcher hanging up a record of 25 strikeouts against the all-stars, the boys loafed along with the outfielders, the first baseman sat down on the bag for entire innings, the third baseman played 15 feet from the batter, the infield visited in a group, and the biggest act of all, the colored boys started running bases the wrong way and got the befuddled all-stars so up in the air they didn't know where to throw the ball. As a baseball game it wasn't anything, but it was a good comedy show and the big crowd liked it.

LACEY LANDSCAPE

Never before have prairies and roadsides been so abundant with Queen Anne's lace, that lacy-white flower.

There used to be an old saying that when fields were ablaze with yellow in a presidential year, it was a sign of a coming Republican victory (that a Democrat told me of that tradition, Roy).

But with the fields a mass of white, we don't know just what it does portend—maybe the white towel the Democrats are preparing to toss in the ring—maybe it's the lily white future of peace on earth and a land of plenty promised by the Wallace-ites—and possibly the sign of real cleanliness denoted by the Southern Democratic party, which comes closest to being a real old American party.

TAKING A LEAVE

With this issue, Tales of the Street suspends for a month.

Not that we're going to Florida or the north woods, but with everyone else taking vacations, we're going on a leave from writing any more pieces for the paper.

The boss doesn't know about it yet; this is his notice. We'll be back in October to catch some of the straw blowing about the big November election.

For a whole month the meters can rest easy and the school and village budgets and tax levies can do the same. After all, boss, after 45 years of writing for Paddock Publications, a fellow is entitled to a rest, and so are the readers.

CRITICAL

We met the man in the white hat the other day, but this time he was wearing a straw sailor. He's the fellow who sold Palatine those parking meter things with the glowing prospects of hauling in $8 per month per meter, which objective so far

LIKE A LEECH

The span of life of a crab is twenty years; of a leech, twenty years; of a spider, ten to fifteen years.

has been way off the map. The meter gent was remarking to a local resident that Arlington Heights was a one-horse town (because they don't believe in grabbing pennies and nickels from the people).

"Well, brother," we remarked, "we haven't seen any of that $8 per month per meter yet."

"You never will with the kind of enforcement you have here," he retorted.

This gent appeared before the village board several months ago finding fault with the way Palatine ran its meters. He criticized spots reserved for doctors, etc. etc. Well, brother, Palatine has your meters and they'll run them they way they see fit.

If you don't like the way our local government operates, take the blame things out. Meter take last week, $126.92, up a little more, to George's delight.

DON'T MISS IT

Palatino Park Garden club will hold their flower and garden show this Saturday afternoon and evening. Don't miss it, it will be well worth seeing. At the high school gym.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

Sometimes I long for the simple days of thirty years ago. I long for the open trails, the long, clean sweep of the rolling Dakota prairies, the clean, sweet fresh air, the warm friendliness of neighbors who were miles apart, and who consequently never got on one another's nerves. There was work, of course, hard, grueling work to wrest a livelihood from the stubborn black soil. There was loneliness, too, but not the sort of loneliness one finds among other people. It was the sort of loneliness where one had time for meditation, time to wonder about the vast expanse of the heavens, the twinkling of stars, the prairie wolf's mournful howl, and the restless movement of cattle and horses on the pasture lands when the storm clouds rumbled and sabres of lightning thrust their keen, illuminating shafts into the lush green fields.

Today, I find it easy to be lonely among people. Lonely because people are forever playing a game of hide and seek.

Your weekly treat recipe

Fruit pies are a delight to everyone. Here's a recipe with a rare flavor to add special zest to your meal. It's a cool idea for hot days and it's rich and filling.

Soured Cream Raspberry Pie
1 pkg. frozen raspberries (drain)
1½ cups juice, plus water
1 pkg. Danish Dessert
1 cup Soured Cream
1 9" pie shell

Method: Combine raspberry juice and water to make 1½ cups liquid. Add contents of package of Danish Dessert. Bring to full boil, stirring constantly. Then boil for 1 minute. Cool and add raspberries and soured cream. Pour into baked pie shell and chill for 3 to 4 hours. Just before serving, top with whipped cream.
Note: Use regular pastry or graham pie crust.

In the future

A toothpaste dispenser is the latest bathroom gadget. Advertising kits for merchants' window displays contain die cut paper letters and symbols. Desk model letter opener is now available. Child's chemical set will contain sample of uranium ore. New auto seat covers made of paper, fiber and fabric and coated with vinyl resin are said to be resistant to cigarette burns and can be cleaned with a damp cloth. New model garage jack can be operated standing up. Multi-purpose home tool combines functions of saw, lathe, drill press and disk sander. Incidentally, there is a new line of midget work working tools on the market. Safety platform for window washers eliminates harness.

SUES FOR INJURIES

Robert and Wilma Lewis, Lee Turner and Billy Rose have sued Raymond Magnus in Circuit court for damages for injuries in an automobile accident in Skokie July 10. They were passengers in R. Lewis' car on Skokie blvd. at Dempster street when Magnus made a left turn into Dempster st., and in so doing drove with great force against the Lewis car injuring the occupants and damaging the car. Robert and Wilma ask $20,000 damages each, Turner $10,000 and Rose $5,000.

striving to seem what they are not, and to hide what they really are, struggling desperately to make a living in an effort that demands most of their energy, leaving only the frayed nervous edges for moments of artificial pleasure. Lonely like the people around me because we are too wrapped up in ourselves to feel the soft caresses of an evening breeze or to drink in the stirring loveliness of a colorful sunset or the beautiful tints of a coming dawn.

There is a tenseness in one's relationship with people of populous urban communities that was totally missing in rural communities on the prairies even thirty years ago. Only in one's nearest, most intimate acquaintances can one feel free from the questioning eyes of a cynic. People are suspicious because they feel that even their nearest friends may be ready to betray them when their personal welfare is at stake.

And where are the helping hands, the generosity that is willing to take from one's own slender larder or funds to help some one more needy than one's self? There are people like that, of course, even in the cities. But for the most part there is no direct contact between the person in trouble and the helping hand. Close comradeship, understanding and sympathy, the very nature of the prairie country, is by the very nature of city life, choked at its source.

Some day I shall return to the prairies. I hope that the automobile and radio have not stifled life as it used to be there.

DEAR JANE:

After a seven year recess, the Harvard Garden Club resumed its flower and vegetable show.

The exhibit was held in the recreation room of the Methodist church in Harvard on August 20 between the hours of two and five in the afternoon and from seven to nine-thirty in the evening. Approximately five hundred entries were catalogued in their respective classes and on display. This is an amazingly large number, considering that the membership of the club totals about thirty women. The entire community had been asked to make contributions from their gardens, and they responded most enthusiastically.

As one entered the hall, lined with tall bouquets of green foliage and large base arrangements of Queen Ann's Lace, Dock, Cat Tails, and the lovely lavender weed, humorously called Joe Pye, a feeling of restfulness seemed to permeate the place. But, upon crossing the threshold of the main exhibit room, one was immediately transported into a realm of stimulating, gorgeous color! Gladioli of every hue predominated, this being the season for its blooming, and cosmos, petunias, geraniums, zinnias, roses, all lent their magnificent, varied shades of color to the scene.

Shadow box arrangements took up the space at the foot of the stage in this large room, and they arrested our attention immediately. In this class there is, indeed, ample opportunity to test one's creative ability. Two of the ten arrangements received blue ribbons from the judges. Both were unusually interesting. One employed modern pottery in its figures, the other antique. I shall try to describe the latter one for you.

The entire lining for this "picture box", as I like to call them, was of draped black moire cloth. Two Chinese figurines, one an inch or so higher than the other, delicately carved and colored in shades of dark green and gold, occupied space a little to the left of center in the box; to the right of the box, a low container filled with brilliant red double Oriental poppies. Directly in front stood a small but ferocious looking Chinese dog that added just a wee bit of humor that was delightful. I asked the exhibitor how she managed to keep the poppies from drooping and losing their petals, and she said she had sealed the stems ends over the gas jets on her stove, and then plunged them into cold water.

Among the several table settings for porch picnics, one stands out particularly in my memory, for it was so simple and pretty and easy for anyone of us to copy. The exhibitor used a yellow painted tea wagon. On it she arranged a small bouquet of black-eyed Susans in a red container. Paper napkins in a strawberry design were neatly placed to one side. Frosted white glasses with a narrow red rim and Vermont blond wood plates completed the arrangement.

One quite large table was covered with a white linen cloth over a hundred years old. It was set with antique milk glass plates, and clear glass goblets. An old English tea pot, well over a hundred years old, lent great charm to this table.

Another distinguished table used pale pink linen and grey Russell Wright pottery dishes. Deeper pink blossoms with trailing green vines were housed within a glass chimney of a low lamp.

A niched enclosure held the tiny miniatures, but many of them ran over three inches in height, in which is the qualification in this class. Therefore according to the judges, they would rightfully be called, "Tom Thumbs" in Garden Club language. Many of these tiny things were quite lovely, and amusing.

There were tables set aside just for "monomaniacs"—flowers of one color—if you are as uninformed as I. An example of this was an arrangement of white gladioli in different lengths grouped at one end of a low white, rectangular dish. Think how dramatic these flowers would appear if placed in a black, pottery dish same shape, same size, in a room employing modern decor?

There was a table for flowers in antique containers. I can assure you no one could possibly be more surprised than I when my friend, Mrs. Barker, telephoned to inform me that my contribution had taken a blue ribbon!

In the first place, I had never entered in a Garden Show previously, and secondly, I know absolutely nothing about the rules that govern such a show. Several members had asked me to send in something if I had the inclination and time, so with "On well, it might be fun to see what I'd turn out," I thought in my mind. I decided an hour before the judges were to judge, to take two blossoms and a bud from the carnation-like petunia plant George had given me for Mother's Day, and a sprig of purple Veronica, that small spiked-shape perennial, and put them in an old pink lustre coffee cup. This I filled with water and set on its saucer. The size of this arrangement would make it suitable for a tray, the corner of a desk, or a coffee table, but it would look especially sweet in the pink boudoir of a teen-age girl.

There was a dear little "wish-ing well" surrounded by pots of red geraniums inside a low red brick wall, behind which a latticed patio served as an ideal spot for ice cream and cake. I glanced over in that direction during the evening to see sixteen year-old Marcia, and her young friends, Mary and Frances, sitting demurely in summer formal with floral "touches" on their shoulders and in their hair. They presented a lovely picture. Can you picture Black-eyed Susans with a cornflower blue or-gandy, bouffant styled, evening dress? And deep pink Phlox blossoms entwined in an up-sweep dark hair skirted topping off a pink, full-skirted, organdy dress? Tiny Mary, who wore white, had a small corsage of peach colored gladioli, that was most appropriate for her stature. Haven't you often thought that "little girls" look weighted down with the massive corsages their beaux send, supposedly to make an impression?

I really could go on at greater length, for I haven't covered half the show, but time and space will not allow. I shall leave you with this thought, so aptly put by one of the women judges, "It is a shame that a few of us who view the result have been given a 'spiritual lift', for if only a few minutes, it has been well worth it."

With love, Mary.
P. S. I just realized that I hadn't mentioned the judges' names. They were: Mrs. Frank Keck, State Chairman of the Garden Department of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. Clarence Howard, both of Freeport, Ill.

It Happened Here...

Our little art critic, going on four, loves picture books and was allowed to leaf through the catalogue of the Salt Mine pictures; pausing at one of the nudes, she remarked, "She has no clothes on, guess she tho't it was too warm." Sighing she closed the book—she was not allowed to indulge in such caprices. Signs of fall: The vines covering the Graham's walls are turning a rich bronze-green, an array housing a multitude of sparrows; the golden glow has begun to nod over the back fence like a tethered goldfinch; bouncing Bet is a splash of color rimming the rough of the cemetery green; leaves are beginning to fall, spreading scatter rugs on the lawns; robins in flocks are giving the clan call; crows are holding pow-wows over on the green, featuring themselves presidential candidates, they are perfect mimics with an uninhibited sense of humor; the brown thrush steals mysteriously in and out of the borders—he is a part of the prevailing sense of mystery, waiting for a signal; boys and girls are coming home from camp as brown as berries and the days are noticeably shorter.

Lack of easements holds back water from Lombard well

Failure by the owners of two of the parcels of property involved, to respond to Lombard's request for an easement, to provide right-of-way for a discharge line from the new village well back of the village hall to the water reservoir east of Main street, is holding up use of the added water supply.

Cool August weather and more than the customary amount of rainfall have combined to prevent a major hardship as a result of the delay. Also, it was brought out at the village board meeting, the well housing must still be built and the pump delivered and installed.

But the main job left is that of digging the connecting line, and this cannot be started until the easements are all signed. Harder effort to speed this up was ordered. Several persons are involved in ownership of one of the parcels involved, and it was indicated that they had not all been contacted. Two of the owners signed the easements within a week after the request

Hippocratic Oath

Doctor Ward's Notebook

Nearly everyone has heard of the Oath of Hippocrates, but few have actually read this historic statement. This week's column is devoted to a presentation of the Oath which, although written over 2,000 years ago, continues to provide the fundamental spirit of medical ethics. It is suggested that interested readers save this column for use next week when present-day implications of the Oath will be studied.

"I swear by Apollo the healer, invoking all the gods and goddesses to be my witnesses, that I will fulfill this Oath and this written Covenant to the best of my ability and judgment.

"I will look upon him who shall have taught me this Art even as one of my own parents. I will share my substance with him, and I will supply his necessities, if he be in need. I will regard his offspring even as my own brethren, and I will teach them this Art, if they would learn it, without fee or covenant. I will impart this Art by precept, by lecture and by every mode of teaching, not only to my own sons but to the sons of him who has taught me, and to disciples bound by covenant and oath, according to the Law of Medicine.

"The regimen I adopt shall be for the benefit of the patients according to my ability and judgment, and not for their hurt or for any wrong. I will give no deadly drug to any, though it be asked of me, nor will I counsel such, and especially I will not aid a woman to procure abortion. Whatsoever house I enter, there will I go for the benefit of the sick, refraining from all wrongdoing or corruption, and especially from any act of seduction, of male or female, of bond or free. Whatsoever things I see or even apart therefrom, which ought not to be noised abroad, I will keep silence thereon, counting such things to be as sacred secrets. Pure and holy will I keep my Life and my Art.

"If I fulfill this Oath and confound it not, he it mine to enjoy Life and Art alike, with good repute among all men at all times. If I transgress and violate my oath, may the reverse be my lot."

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. In what way can one discriminate between the people to whom wedding invitations are to be sent and those to whom announcements are mailed?

A. Invitations are sent to the close friends whom one really wishes to attend the wedding. Announcements are mailed only to those not considered sufficiently close to be invited to the wedding. But do not send an invitation and an announcement to the same person.

Q. Is it permissible to interrupt a conversation between two persons in order to introduce another person?

A. No; one should always wait until there is a pause in the conversation.

Libertyville rocked by mystery blast

Many residents were awakened in Libertyville shortly before midnight recently by a loud blast. It sounded like an explosion. Windows in a number of homes rattled. Calls were received at the telephone exchange and by police. The latter made an investigation, as did police of Mundelein. However, no trace of the origin was found.

Q. Should two different kinds of food be placed at once on the fork?

A. Only one morsel of but one kind of food should be placed on a fork at one time.

Q. Is it all right for a man to talk with a woman when meeting her on the street, with a cigar or cigarette in his mouth?

A. No; it would be ill-bred to talk with either a woman or a man with a cigarette or cigar dangling from the lips.

Q. When passing your plate for a second helping, should you leave your knife and fork on it?

A. Yes. Be sure the handles are far enough on the plate to keep your knife and fork from toppling off.

Q. Should one address his reply to the bride or to her parents when accepting a wedding invitation?

A. The acceptance should be addressed to the bride's parents, as the invitation was issued in their name.

Q. Is it permissible for a bride to have her mother acknowledge the wedding gifts?

A. No; personal notes should be written by the bride. They may be brief, but should be sincere and express genuine appreciation for the gift.

Q. Should a girl be in time to receive her escort when he calls, or would it be better to keep him waiting for a few minutes?

A. It would be silly to keep him waiting if she is dressed and ready. Most men admire promptness.

Q. Is it necessary that a person take some of every dish that is served by a hostess?

A. It is better to take from the majority of them. It would be very rude to refuse three or four dishes.

LAW on the FARM

Adverse possession and line fences. Real estate titles are at best difficult to preserve accurately. Many agreements affecting the land are not written or recorded, easements may be created, mistakes may creep in to written instruments and other things arise which make the tracing of titles an uncertain process. To prevent some of the confusion which might otherwise exist, state legislatures have established periods of limitation during which claims to land may be made but after which no claim is enforceable. Illinois law provides that "no person shall commence an action for the recovery of lands, nor bring such action or make such entry first accrued, or within twenty years after he or those under whom he claims, have been possessed of the premises..."
Not only does this law clear the record of many claims more than 20 years old, but it sometimes results in the passing of land from the record title holder to one who has used and claimed the land as his own for 20 or more years. A frequent example of the latter exists in the case of misplaced line fences. According to the Illinois courts, if an owner occupies land up to a fence line, believing it to be his own, he will acquire the land up to the fence after 20 years of adverse possession, even though the fence line is not properly located and is on the land of the adjoining owner. Whether or not possession has been "adverse" is oftentimes a very difficult question to settle. When the issue arises in a law suit, it is generally left to the jury to decide.

The law referred to is in the Illinois Revised Statutes, Chapter 83, Section 1.

Farmers' net income cut in first of 1948

The farmer is doing all right
these days, but he's not making
as much as the high retail food prices would lead some consumers to think. The farmer is getting good prices, but his production costs have gone up and reduced his net income.

Frank Atchley, director of research for the Illinois Agricultural association, says that prices received by farmers for the first half of 1948 averaged 5 per cent over the first half of 1947, but production costs were up 16 per cent over last year.

One of the largest cost items
has been that of farm labor.
Atchley says, which has increased about 5 per cent over 1947.
Prices of farm machinery, building materials, and various supplies and equipment have all shown a gradual but steady climb.

FEED PRICES have averaged 16 per cent higher for the first half of this year over the same period in 1947.

When these and other cost items are taken into account, indications are that farmers' net income so far this year has been below that of last year, even though cash receipts have been higher, Atchley reports.

Atchley pointed out, however,
that strong consumer demand is maintaining the general level of farm product prices near record levels despite the likelihood that this year's crop production will be the largest in history.

Eventually, the larger corn crop will undoubtedly increase hog production and make for lower pork chop prices, but this will take some months. With lower corn prices, farmers probably will feed their fall market
hogs to heavier weights which should make for more pounds of pork. But the earliest that pig numbers can be increased is next spring.

pede races, stunt riding, a king
and queen contest, a tandem bike event, and a klunker race.
Prizes and trophies will be awarded for the best-decorated

Palatine percherons win in Wisconsin

The Frank C. Rathje herd of Percherons (Palatine, Ill.) started its show season with the Wisconsin State Fair at Milwaukee.
The 13 awards won by the herd,
aside from the special high awards of grand championship and senior championship on the mare, Virginia Dawn, junior championship on the mare, Kon-carann, junior championship and reserve championship on the stallion, Director U. L. C., indicate the herd is in excellent show condition.

This number of winnings indicates that the Rathje herd took a good share of the generous $1,920 paid in premiums on Percherons at this excellent show.

The Frank C. Rathje Farm of Palatine, will number among many out-of-state exhibitors to compete in the National Percheron Show to be held in conjunction with the Ohio State Fair, August 28-September 3 at Columbus.

The Rathje herd, of which nine are scheduled to compete at Ohio for a share of the $6,850 premium awards, includes the outstanding mare February
Forty-Three, 1947 Chicago International Grand Champion Mare.

Little pigs roll their own

The following pointers on feeding grain to hogs were released
this week by Farm Adviser C. A.
Hughes. They are based on suggestions received from H. G. Russell, livestock specialist, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Corn—Since pigs weighing up to 150 pounds chew corn thoroughly, there is not enough saving in grinding it to warrant the expense. Ear corn and shelled corn usually give as good results
as ground corn. As pigs reach 150 pounds in weight, grinding
the corn for hand-feeding will save 6 to 7 percent. When they are self-fed, there is less saving.
For hogs, it is best to grind the corn medium-fine.

Oats—Oats should be finely ground for hogs, since anything that can be done to make the hull less noticeable increases their palatability. For fattening-hogs, oats should not make up more than a third of the total grain ration.

Wheat—Coarse grinding saves about 6 percent when wheat is self-fed; it saves 15 to 20 percent when it is hand-fed.

Barley—Barley ground medium fine has about 17 percent higher feeding value for hogs than whole barley. Scabby barley is not satisfactory for feeding.

Young pullets need comfort

The farm flock owner needs a management plan not only to fit
his own convenience, but to fit
the convenience of the young pullets. When young birds are coming into production, they need the best of care, especially when the price of eggs is riding
the crest.

While most chickens are on the range at this season, nevertheless the chilly rains and sudden drops in temperature that will be coming along in a few weeks will be a sharp reminder
to get the pullets into the house.
Not only are the birds likely to suffer from colds and exposure,
but egg production may be cut
and you may lose your profit.

To keep disease at a minimum,
S. F. Ridlen, University of Illinois extension poultryman, says to put your pullets into a clean house, away from old hens. The entire house and equipment
needs to be scrubbed with lye water. To control mites, paint the perches and the walls with carbolineum or creosote. Put fresh litter on the floor and nesting material in the nests.

Install enough equipment to make the birds comfortable. For every 100 birds, provide two hoppers 10 feet long for grain and mash, two fountains with a combined capacity of five gallons, 20 nests and 70 to 80 feet of roosts. Allow 3 1/2 square feet of floor space for Leghorns and four square feet for the heavy breeds.

"Keep only the pullets that show signs of becoming good producers," Ridlen added. "If your flock in general is healthy, weed out only those birds that show physical weakness; they are usually a liability. Then, after housing the birds, cull as laying progresses."

EGGS Are Higher! FEED Is Cheaper!

The stage is set for good profits for those who can produce eggs and get them on the market this fall. Feed prices have declined while the price of eggs is moving upward. Organize your feeding program around MASTER MIX feeds and step up your egg production as quickly as possible. Get our formulas for boosting the egg-laying capacity of your hens. Produce more eggs when prices are up.

Better Living in Mount Prospect

*This Is The Work The Lonnquist Organization Has Done To Make
"The Town of Flowers"
A Better Place In Which To Enjoy Living The American Way*

THE BEGINNING — 1924

- ONE FARM BUILDING south of Lincoln—East of Elmhurst road.
- NO TREES—NO IMPROVEMENTS other than the farm house.
- ONE FARM SET OF BUILDINGS west of Elmhurst Road. No trees—no improvements—only corn fields.
- A BARREN CLAY RIDGE where Weller Creek was deepened.
- AS FAR AS THE EYE COULD SEE it was just prairie.
- AN OLD MILK STATION (not modern) where the Northwestern Station now stands.
- OUR FIRST JOB was to install a sewer and water system.
- HOUSES WERE BUILT and thousands of trees planted.

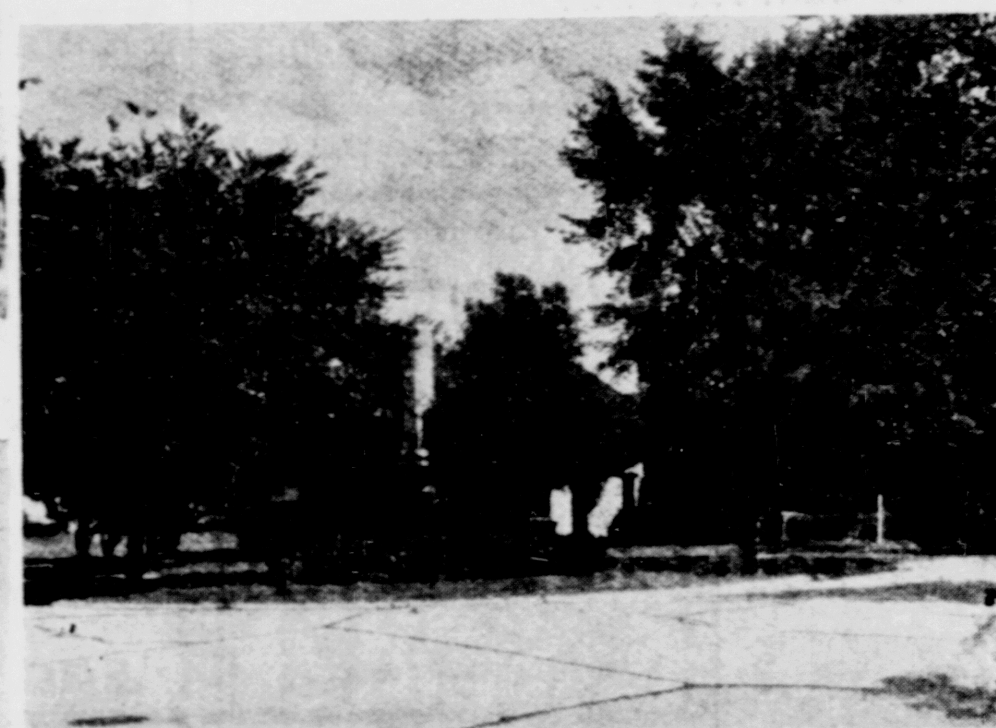

Homes in the New Country Club Section on Lonnquist Parkway

THE RESULT — 1948

- A FINER HOME COMMUNITY embracing the best features of a well planned land development with the maturity of twenty years' careful control of its growth.
- ITS WIDE FRONTAGES on winding tree-lined streets, the gently rolling topography, with parks and playgrounds and an adjoining 18 hole Golf Course and beautiful Club Building make this District an exceptionally attractive environment for home ownership.
